

CERTIFICATE OF COMPLETION

Kavli SciComm Essentials Series

Ava Polzin

For science to benefit humanity, The Kavli Foundation supports more than research itself. This certifies Ava Polzin has completed the Kavli SciComm Essentials course as of December 15, 2023. The Kavli Foundation recognizes the time and effort committed to developing a well-rounded set of science communication and engagement skills. This includes study and practice of evidence-based science communication, visual presentation skills, and relational approaches to effective engagement.
